Keep Your Pet Happy, Healthy, and Home

Whether you have a dog, cat, or bird, providing regular, life-long veterinary care is important to having a healthy pet and a healthy family. Always spay or neuter, and microchip your cat or dog. Keep up with your pet's vaccines, deworming, and flea and tick control. Provide your pet with a good diet, fresh water, clean bedding, and exercise. By keeping your pet healthy, you keep yourself and your family healthy. Regular veterinary visits are essential to good pet health.

Enjoy Your Pet!

There are many health benefits of having a pet. A pet is like having a friend who lives with you! Pets love to spend time playing with you. Cats are acrobatic when playing with toys or even a piece of yarn. Dogs love to go outside to chase balls or to take a walk. Exercise helps keep your pet fit, and it's good for you, too.
